

Thomas Verheye

Deputy Head of Unit, European Commission

Thomas Verheye is an official of the European Commission where he is Deputy Head of Unit of the Unit C.4 in DG Environment dealing with "Industrial Emissions and Protection of the Ozone Layer". His main responsibilities relates to the Regulation on ozone depleting substances (implementing the Montreal Protocol) and the Regulation on certain fluorinated gases (implementing the Kyoto Protocol). Prior to this post Verheye held positions in the Climate Change unit and the Economic Analysis unit.

Before joining the European Commission he worked for Ernst and Young as a Senior Auditor, the International Monetary Fund as a member of the Treasurer's Department, and the Bank of New York as Vice President responsible for Product Development. He holds a degree in Business Economic and a Masters in Accounting and Finance from the University of Gent.

Biography

Presentation

"EU Policy Update on Refrigerants"

Session

"Policy Frameworks for Natural Refrigerants"

Mo, 19 October

9 am

Conference

www.atmosphere2009.com

Contact

For more detailed information, please contact Nina Burhenne, Marketing Manager, shecco, at:

nina.burhenne@shecco.com or call +32 473 468 194